   ❖ A snapshot of statistics for the current calendar year was shared with the Board.
   ❖ Dolan gave a brief update on the status of the CMS merger with Prison Health Services.

VII. Contract administration update, Deputy Chief Pat Donaldson
   ❖ Director Reinke provided a budget snapshot comparing all categories of funding from 2000 – 2012.
   ❖ Donaldson shared the history of contract monitoring within the Department and stated that a standard operating procedure (SOP) for contract management of medical, private prisons and general services has been written.
   ❖ Donaldson presented a draft copy of the contract oversight manual for the ICC and reviewed the progress to date. He stated that the manual will be shared with Corrections Corporation of America for their input as it is intended to be a joint agreement. Upon completion of this manual, oversight manuals will be developed for CMS and CAPP.

VIII. Leadership team updates, Leadership
   ❖ Operations Division, Chief Kevin Kempf
     ◆ Kempf shared that the Twin Falls Community Work Center (CWC) will be closing as of August 1, 2011. All staff has been offered positions within the Department, several will stay in Twin Falls with the Bureau of Probation and Parole and the rest will transition into positions at other facilities. He stated that the changes in offender populations are the reason for the closure and that this facility is the only one leased and not owned by the state.
     ◆ Kempf shared that there will be changes within the facilities with regard to housing. The Pocatello Women’s Correctional Center will be receiving inmates from county jails; the female CAPP riders will be moved to South Boise Women’s Correctional Center (SBWCC). Female traditional riders will move to the South Idaho Correctional Institution Parole Release Center (SICI PRC).
     ◆ The male Therapeutic Community (TC) will move from SICI to ICC, CAPP will add a new Conflict Resolution Program and North Idaho Correctional Institution (NICI) will add a TC family to replace the sex offender treatment program that was moved to Orofino.
     ◆ A brief update was provided with regard to how other western states are handling their budget issues.
   ❖ Management Services, Chief Tony Meatte
     ◆ Meatte shared the turnover rate for staff indicating that most are transitioning to other state agencies for pay increases. In an effort to improve compensation and retain staff, a committee has been formed to study this issue.
     ◆ He discussed the new online learning management system that will be used by the Department. Meatte shared that Leadership 100 training finished on May 25, 2011.
Legislative auditors are reviewing FY2008 – FY2010 inmate banking records.
