IV. Board of Correction award/recognition - Chair Sandy and Director Reinke
✓ Director Reinke recognized Correctional Officer Michael O’Donnell for working with offender Gout and arranging to have 8 quilts made by the offender donated to the Ronald McDonald house. CO O’Donnell’s efforts have brought the positive side of correction to the public’s attention.
✓ Director Reinke also presented offender Gout with a letter of appreciation for his work.

V. Leadership team updates
✓ Division of Prisons - Chief Pam Sonnen
  ♦ Sonnen presented the Prison Division’s management analysis for February 2010 in a PowerPoint slide show. Areas highlighted included:
    ▪ Number of groups conducted at each facility;
    ▪ Incarcerated offender admissions and releases;
    ▪ Use of force incidents;
    ▪ Offender assaults on offenders and staff;
    ▪ Prison Rape Elimination Act statistics;
Current vacancies for both security and non-security staff; and
Number of offenders either incarcerated or under supervision, affiliated with a known gang.
Criteria for female offenders to be eligible for participation in work centers include
- No sex offenders;
- Offenders must be 90-day Class A Disciplinary Offense Report (DOR) free; and
- Offenders must be within 12 months of parole eligibility date, tentative parole date or full-term release date for a high-risk crime or 18 months for a low-risk crime.

Division of Community Corrections - Chief Kevin Kempf
- A new committee has been formed to review the national Interstate Compact rules and determine ways to change them in light of the recent incident that occurred in Washington state; the shooting suspect was on interstate compact.
- Working with district managers to make sure that reentry and wraparound services are available when the Correctional Alternative Placement Program (CAPP) opens.
- Community Corrections Division (CCD) has experienced no growth due to Parole Officers and the Parole Commission working together to review discharge requests thus reducing caseloads. CCD is also working on an unsupervised parole program for certain types of offenders.

Division of Management Services - Chief Tony Meattle
- Fiscal has started year-end processing early to determine what savings there may be for year end FY10.
- The IT manager has resigned effective June 30, 2010. The Office of Professional Standards is currently working on a case involving the contractors who worked on the Correctional Information System ICIS).
